

PRESS RELEASE

For immediate release

June 2008

Meinl is looking for people who love to play percussion to be published in the 2009 Book of Percussion!

Just send us a picture of yourself expressing your musical personality. The photo can be taken anywhere. There's only one restriction: You should not be playing an instrument in the picture, because we believe that with your love for music, your musical personality will shine through and be self-evident.

We will choose the best pictures and publish them in our new 2009 MEINL Percussion catalogue. If your picture makes it into publication, you will be informed by mail and we will send you a copy of the new catalogue.

Also, we'll choose the three coolest pictures and will award them with a prize!

Just go to meinlpercussion.com and take part in our contest. All photos must be submitted by August 31, 2008.

MEINL's percussion Product Manager Mario Schmitt comments, "I think this is a great opportunity for percussionists all over the world. We're giving them a new platform to show their love for drums and to bring them together."
